

Do you need help using your vision benefit?

At CareOregon Advantage, your vision is very important to us! That's why we offer a vision benefit that most other plans don't. Are you using it? Do you have questions about it? Here are three questions and answers that may help you before you make your next eye appointment.

1. When can I have a routine vision exam?

You can have a routine exam once every year.

2. What vision provider can I see?

You can choose from one of the many vision providers listed in our online provider tool at careoregonadvantage.org/providersearch.

3. Are glasses covered?

YES! You pay $0 for basic lenses, including standard progressive lenses. You also get $175 to put towards frames or $100 toward contact lenses, every year.

CareOregon Advantage Star is an HMO plan with a Medicare contract. Enrollment in CareOregon Advantage Star HMO depends on contract renewal.
